Its global application is demonstrated in its 7 foreign editions. Rosenberg's second book, "The Human Magnet Syndrome: The Codependent Narcissist Trap," was published on January 15, 2018. It is a complete rewrite of the ground-breaking original work while including an extra 125 pages of new material.

Like its predecessor, the cutting-edge information and mind-blowing explanations for why a person spends a lifetime failing in love with the wrong person, who felt so right, will finally understand what the heck happened, and why. In this version he explores topics like Narcissistic Abuse, Gaslighting, and Self-Love Recovery.

It's about common, everyday relationships that many have experienced but wish they hadn't. Rosenberg explains why so many people fall in love with a soulmate but awaken to a cellmate reality. Not only does the book rewrite what is known about codependency and the many insidious and hard to detect forms of pathological narcissism, it explains why the opposite codependent-narcissist attraction force is king!

ENDORSEMENTS

"I recommend "The Human Magnet Syndrome" to those who work in social services, education, chemical dependency, or the counseling fields and to the people they touch. It's time to wake up and this brilliant book sounds the alarm we need." - Melody Beattie

"Why and how people select their intimate partners is a historical mystery. Even more mysterious is why, when the relationship fails, intimate partners select an almost identical partner and replay the same drama, especially when it involves emotional and physical abuse. In his first book on the subject, Ross illuminated the universal attractive force of lovers. In this second one, he opens the dark side of romantic attraction to the light of analysis and offers the tragic narcissist-codependent lovers a well-lit path to understanding and healthy relating." - Harville Hendrix
